PATRIOTISM GETS

BONDS AND STAMPS

*Good Luck in all that you may try to do.
"Chuck" Hughes.*

PATRIOTISM GETS PRIORITY AT HAMMOND HIGH SCHOOL

Patriotism receives A-1 priority rating from Hammond High School students and faculty. A Minute Man flag with four stars sustains Old Glory — both snap smartly atop the school flag-staff. A bond and stamp weekly purchasing average of 96 per cent, sets the pace for Calumet region schools . . . Red Cross, scrap and paper drives go over the top . . . a bi-monthly, "V-mail" edition of the Calumet Herald is mailed to formed students in the armed forces . . . students fill gaps in essential war jobs.

In their own limited ways, Youth aids the war effort and nourishes his future security.

PRIORITY AT HAMMOND HIGH SCHOOL

The paper drive committee, Jerry Korn, Miss Breyfogle, Mike Sikora, Tow Wade and Mildred Mannion.

Naturalization Court from Dunes auditorium session "This Is My Country."

★ ★ THIS IS MY

IN MEMORY OF THE BOYS FROM HAMMOND HIGH SCHOOL WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES FOR THEIR COUNTRY.

IN MEMORY OF FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT, 31ST PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

COUNTRY

THE LAND OF LIBERTY
Author Unknown

I love my country's pine-clad hills,
Her thousand bright and gushing rills,
Her sunshine and her storms;
Her rough and rugged rocks, that rear
In wild, fantastic forms.

I love her rivers, deep and wide,
Those mighty streams that seaward glide
To seek the ocean's breast;
Her smiling fields, her pleasant vales,
Her shady dells, her flow'ry dales,
The haunts of peaceful rest.

I love her forests, dark and lone,
For there the wild bird's merry tone
I hear from morn till night;
And there are lovelier flowers, I ween,
Than e'er in Eastern lands were seen,
In varied colors bright.

Her forests and her valleys fair,
Her flowers that scent the morning air,
All have their charms for me;
But more I love my country's name,
Those words that echo deathless fame,
"The Land of Liberty."

STAMP AND BONDS

The Time Is Now . . . a ravaged world cries out for builders. Builders of material things; builders of the mind — architects of peace. The need is great and immediate. Youth hurries to finish school — his basic training. War demands a specialized, technical training; peace wants a broad background. “. . . Win the War First” . . . “But we must prepare for peace.” But above all, hurry. Youth must finish a war, begun before his time. And his children will stagger from its effects long after his time.

Yet The Time In Now . . . Youth must make his premature debut.

Mr. Spohn, Principal of Hammond High and Mr. Rupp, assistant principal.

EDUCATION IS NOT RATIONED:

Food for thought never comes in K-rations and war doesn't create a demand for a condensed curriculum. War orders an intensive program of education. And Hammond High responds. Extra math and science courses are the order of the day . . . history, government, and modern problems are sharply realistic. . . . English lubricates the mind's comprehension . . . yet, ironically - - - they embody the ingredients of peace. No drastic reconversion of knowledge and morals is necessary. The core of Youth is just.

Education isn't rationed - - - because education isn't irrational.

Junior Class Was Strong In Sports

The junior class was sponsored this year by Miss H. McCullough, Miss Thompson, and Mr. Overman. The officers were Donald Peckenpau, president; Eleanor Moskoff, vice-president; Clara Ashlock, secretary; and Barbara Wiker, treasurer.

The juniors were quite active in music. Those who participated in the choir were Anderson, M. Clark, D. Clark, Curtis, Danchi, Gardener, Hess, Kahl, Kelly, Kennell, Kothlow, Kuehle, Kuss, Lanier, Lydle, Maly, Skomsky, Washburn, Wendel, Wood, DeLaney, DeRolf, Hamm, Hill, Hill, Kruzan, Longanecker, Staroscak, Storm, and Whitehead. One junior boy participated in Boys' Chorus; he was George Finger.

Many of the girls were interested in furthering their physical education after school hours. The volleyball team consisted of Hassen, Horvath, Raimey, Sargent, P. Smith, S. Smith, Stepancevich, Storm, Studer, Tudor, and Wolff. Sargent, Stepancevich, and Studer were on the varsity volleyball team.

Barker, Hassen, Hill, Jones, Kutak, Massack, Raimey, Rosenau, Sargent, Staneszewski, Stepancevich, Storm, Studer, and Wolff were on the speedball team. Tudor and Kutak were in varsity speedball.

The junior girls active on the basketball team were Studer, Wolff, Sargent, Barker, Smith, Stepancevich, Tudor, Chizmar, Staniszewski, Raimey, and Krieger. The varsity team had Studer, Sargent, Stepancevich, Chizmar, and Staniszewski as members.

The junior boys were equally active in sports. Coach King's basketball squad of Geschiedler, Gollner, Ham-

no CEILING ON

NO CEILING ON MORALE:

Wartime restrictions can't clamp down a ceiling on morale.

School clubs present a varied menu and the student, according to his own tastes, takes his pick. Association parties and dances attract all . . . "Junior Miss" and the "Patsy" pack the auditorium . . . all school work and no extra-curricular play make Jack a dull boy . . . the DUNES and CALUMET HERALD sharpen the keenness of aspiring journalists . . . speech arts, debating, provide ample facilities for mental sport . . . choir and orchestra, glee clubs and bands intensify music appreciation . . .

A balanced formula of activities is the solution to a problem of deflated school spirit. And Hammond High has solved it. There is no problem to inflated morale.

Hammond High School Association Held a Regional Conference

For a successful year the Hammond High School Association worked on the basis of a seven point program.

President was Dick Sampson, assisted by Ted Rudzik, vice-president, and Amanda Alexander, recorder.

The senate was composed of ten senators, three seniors, three juniors and two sophomores and freshmen from each class. They were Evelyn Jensen, Mildred Mannion, Jean King, Jim Jordon, Richard Miller, Mary K. Tudor, Jean Clancy, Shirley Stiller, Larry Smith, and John Maylor.

Miss Frances Taylor was advisor for the senate.

The cabinet members were as follows: Keith Gilchrist, Secretary of Student Discipline, and Miss Breyfogle, sponsor. The duties of this cabinet member is to preside over the court.

Eleanor Bock was Secretary of Red Cross and Miss Katherine Williams faculty sponsor.

Secretary of Student Safety was Dorothy Matosec with Miss Vera Thomas as supervisor. This officer is to captain the monitors and to preside over meetings.

Ray Stephens was Secretary of Student Activities. Faculty advisor was Miss Leodicia Strange. This officer, heading the social representatives planned the social activities for the year.

John Kruger, Student of Publicity, kept the students informed of the Association activities through the Herald.

The disciplinary body of the Association is the Court. They met at 8 a. m. on Wednesday mornings about twice a month.

Members of the Court included the Secretary of Discipline and a judge from each class. Walter Gostlyo, senior; Dave Washburn, junior; Ben Christopher, sophomore; and Margaret Abatie, freshman.

The Paper Committee continued its extensive drive throughout the year. Paper chairman was Tom Wade, and was aided by Mildred Mannion, Jerry Korns, and Mike Sikora. Each week the advisories competed for a decorative scroll, which was given to the advisory bringing the most paper.

Continued from the previous year, a record was kept of all the boys in the service, and with the help of the Clothing Club, the service flag was kept up-to-date. "The Calumet Herald" was also sent to the boys in service.

In November, a safety campaign was launched, and Jensen-Safety Bill went into effect. This helped reduce many traffic hazards in the vicinity of the school.

The Christmas tree was once again sponsored and decorated by the Association. As a Christmas gift to the convalescing soldiers at Gardner Hospital, donations were collected and sent to the hospital to purchase needed games.

In April, a regional conference was held at Hammond High School. Association officers, representatives, and faculty sponsors from Lake County schools attended. Meetings were conducted for the various groups and a social hour climaxed the evening.

Annual Association Week was in May. The House and Senate, Red Cross, Monitors, Social Representatives, Bond and Stamp Committee and Paper Committee each planned a day of events.

Bond and Stamp Group Stressed 100 Percent Advisories

During the year Julia Kohut and Dot Matsec were chairmen of the stamp and bond sale. Assisting them were Bonnie Clark, Sally Domke, Shirley Ohr, Betty Medvid, Dot Wirtanen, Phyllis Adams, Lorna Chizmar, Charles Darling, and Ronald Fick. Miss Laura Johnston was in charge of the financial division and the advertising was supervised by Miss Eunice McCullough.

Again this year the main object was to have everyone in each advisory buying stamps. All advisories that were one hundred per cent were awarded a G. I. that was mounted on a red cardboard which was headed "G.I. or Jap". Advisories that did not report one hundred per cent were given a Jap. Many of the advisories named their G.I.'s after servicemen who had been in their advisories.

At the beginning of the school year a goal of $13,980 was set to be collected by Pearl Harbor Day, December 7th. The goal was not only reached but was surpassed by $10,000. With this money the school purchased a landing barge and an ambulance.

Because of the school's splendid cooperation in the bond and stamp campaign last year, an identical copy of the "Bill of Rights of Congress" was presented to them. This document was hung on the wall above the patriotic stamp booth in the hall. Students sold stamps at the booth before and after school and during both lunch hours. In addition to selling stamps at the booth, each advisory selected a salesman for its own particular room. These salesmen deserve a great deal of credit for the splendid work that they did in helping to keep Hammond High on top in stamp and bond drives.

On December 7, Lieutenant Edwin Nelson, former Hammond High teacher, spoke to the students about his many experiences, especially those of "D" Day.

Last year, through the collection of salvaged paper Hammond High contributed $200 to the Junior Red Cross and also $200 to the Senior Red Cross Fund. Continuing the collection of paper to build up a fund for auditorium programs and expenses of the Association, we finished the school year with a balance of $220.72.

House of Representatives Promotes Safety

The House of Representatives, which helps make school laws for the benefit of the student body, launched a successful safety drive this term.

A set of suggestions to make the students more safety conscious was distributed through the advisories as the first step toward correcting the safety problem.

An auditorium session was held which featured a speaker from the Chicago Motor Club who talked on the subject of safety first.

During the week of the safety campaign, one day was designated as Tag Day. On this day each violator of a safety rule wore a tag proclaiming his carelessness.

At the end of the campaign, the Jansen Safety bill was put into effect. This bill gives the House and Senate jurisdiction over all safety violations within the boundaries of the school. Another bill, fining violators of the Jansen bill twenty-five cents, was also passed.

Besides backing the paper drive, the House conducted a drive for money for a Christmas gift to the Gardner Hospital in Chicago. The money was used by the hospital to provide recreation for the war veterans recuperating there.

In the spring an auditorium session was presented by the Association to show the new students how the student government is operated. The passing of a bill by the House and Senate was demonstrated in a skit, as was the punishing of safety offenders by the Court.

Mr. Schubert was faculty advisor of the House, Ted Rudzik, Association vice-president, was student chairman, and Yvonne Petrie acted as secretary.

Monitors Maintained Order In The Halls

"May I see your admit" was a familiar request of the monitors. There were ninety-seven regular monitors whose duty it was to keep order in the halls, check lockers, direct visitors, and sign admits.

Any student, preferably a junior or senior, with average grades and approval of the faculty is eligible to serve as a monitor.

Period captains were Yvonne Petrie, Norma Raschke, Dot Matosec, Ted Rudzik, Morio Robinson, Jean Rudzik, Mildred Mannion, Edward Carroll, Pat Schauwecker, Geneva Fischer, Earl Wittig and Marion Freyer.

The monitors were under the sponsorship of Miss Vera Thomas and Dot Matosec, secretary of Student Safety.

Those who are chosen to serve as monitors must not only be dependable and reliable but must also have a strong sense of justice toward fellow students.

The monitors' greatest task is signing admits. If admits are found to be illegal, court notices are issued after which the violator is subjected to the rule of the court.

Automobile Club Sponsored Two Auditorium Sessions

The purpose of the Automobile Club is to promote greater safety and to encourage the development of cautious safety habits. The goal during 1944-45 was to make every student safety-minded, so that good habits would become automatic.

Officers of the Automobile Club during the first semester were Emerson Penny, president; Bill Spaniol, vice-president; Amelia Gootee, secretary; and Fred Shaw, treasurer. Fred Baker was program chairman during the first semester, and Bill Lengyel held this office during the second semester. Mr. Beyer was the club sponsor.

Two assemblies were sponsored by the Automobile Club the first semester. On November 15, Fire Chief Scherer and Assistant Fire Chief Schulte spoke in assembly on fire hazards and how to combat them. They gave a demonstration of the use of chemicals to fight fires. On January 10, Mr. Sam Campbell, who is annually sponsored by the Automobile Club, gave a lecture and presented a movie on natural science and scenic beauties in the northern and western sections of the United States.

The meetings of the club were made interesting by monthly movies and speakers. The movies were on travel in the Southern Hemisphere, in Canada, Texas, Portugal, and India. There was also one on future airways. Two very informative speakers were Police Chief Martinson, who spoke on the importance of strictly adhering to safety rules, and State Trooper Crampton, who stressed education as the best method of combating safety hazards.

The Automobile Club sponsored a safety drive at school to eliminate jay-walking and made students conscious of the rules that must be observed by pedestrians for greater safety.

Some members of the club met with the Hammond Safety Council to insure full co-operation of the students in safety campaigns. They also influenced the enforcement of the 20 mile-per-hour speed limit to be observed in school districts. A petition for traffic lights and warning signs, presented by the Automobile Club, has been given considerable attention by the Council.

This year the club had the honor of becoming a member of the Junior Branch of the National Safety Council.

Biology Club Donated Books

The purpose of the Biology Club is to further interests in biology and to promote teaching co-operation, leadership and promptness in keeping appointments. This club gives experience in potting plants, fertilizing soil, keeping pests under control, and plant culture phases.

To gain membership in this club, a student must be either a biology student at present or have had biology sometime during his high school days. He must prove himself deserving of membership by taking an active part in all duties and responsibilities of the club.

This year was the first time that election of officers was held at the beginning of the semester, the election being brought about by a change in the constitution. In previous years, elections were held in the spring for the following year. This change gives the new club members a chance to obtain a responsible position, thus creating a new student interest.

The first semester of this year the membership was relativeup small. The members were as follows: Elizabeth Adams, Tom Anderson, Martha Born, Russell Dryfus, Renner Hofman, Thelma Hill, Helen Hundley, Jaquette Sutton, Victoria Maryonowski, and Wayne Hartigan.

The officers were Renner Hofman, president; Wayne Hartigan, vice-president; Martha Born, secretary; and Elizabeth Adams, treasurer.

The activities for the first semester consisted mostly of caring for the various plants in the cafeteria, room 116, window boxes, the library, and study halls. Considerable time was spent in dissecting frogs and a study of the nervous system of the frog was made. Guinea pigs were secured for nutrition experiments, and a baby alligator offered much enjoyment to the members.

Each year the Biology Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Reeder, donates several books to the library.

Bohemian Club Gives Individual Opportunity

Because of the fact that many of the members of the Bohemian Club were enrolled in Miss Kennedy's creative writing class, second semester, Mr. A. T. Bolt, club sponsor, suggested that the Bohemian Club be temporarily disbanded, since the purpose of the groups was practically identical.

The Bohemian Club started the first semester with an informal initiation. The purpose of the club is to encourage creative composition and to give to the individual an opportunity to develop his interests for writing.

For the first semester the members elected Bob Goodman, president; Jule Meyn, vice-president; Yvonne Petrie, treasurer; and Mary K. Clark, secretary.

Clothing Club Assisted Red Cross

The Clothing Club is composed of girls who have taken or who are taking Clothing I and II.

The chief project of the club was the making of patch-work lap robes for the Red Cross to use in hospitals. The club was divided into teams for this project. At the beginning of the year the girls finished ditty bags, which were also turned into the Red Cross. Most of the club's meetings were used to make the lap robes and ditty bags.

An occasional skit and social program was presented. One unusual program, that was presented, was by four boys who gave their opinions freely on what girls should and should not wear.

Officers for the first semester were chosen as follows: president, Joyce Jones; vice-president, Pat Turner; and secretary-treasurer, Betty Sockett. The officers for the second semester were president, Shirley Sykes; vice-president, Pat Turner; and secretary-treasurer, Nancy Weis. The sponsor of the Clothing Club is Miss Georgia Thiel.

Commercial Club Heard Well Known Businessmen

During the semester there were several guest speakers for various meetings. These speakers were all well-known business men of Hammond. The first speaker was Mr. Clarence Minas, of Edward C. Minas and Company, who talked to the club about "Buying Merchandise in War Time."

The second speaker was Miss Georgia McCarty, of the Hammond radio station WJOB, who spoke to the group about the requirements of a radio announcer and the different set-ups of the large networks.

The third and last speaker was Mr. Harold Snyder, of Northern Indiana Public Service Company, who told the club what a large business expects of a high school grapher, bookkeeper, or a general office worker.

The Commercial Club is composed of any junior or senior commercial student.

The club sponsors and officers had a Christmas party for the other members of the club.

The Commercial Club officers for the first semester were president, Anne Gregory; vice-president, Lois Pennington; secretary, Wilma Switzer; and treasurer, Lillian Dietrich. The club faculty sponsors are Miss M. Williams and Miss M. E. Scott.

G. A. C.

When the G.A.C. girls held their first meeting of 1944-45, their social calendar looked promising, and it turned out to be as good as it looked. The first affair scheduled was a hike which turned into a successful splash party at the last minute because of the weather. The second frolic planned and duly carried through was a rollicking Halloween party. Three old members in very good standing, Evelyn Jensen, Eleanor Bock, and Dorothy Matosec, made up the committee to plan the hilarity. On November 7 a combined hike and weiner roast was held as a stop-gap between the Halloween party and the Christmas supper. The said Christmas dinner on December 15 was made pot-luck, and a committee of new members, Norma Wright, Rita Fandrei, and Jean Holloway, made it a success. The basketball game afterwards was equally successful. Audrey House, Dorreen Robison, Phyllis Ersham, Alice Haag, Leona and Lorraine Smalley, and Mary Ann Segally managed the February Valentine Fun Night. An appropriately wet Splash Party was held on March 20 with Bernadine Storm, Lillian Massack, Dolores Kurmis, Audrey Garber, and Arlene Leek doing double duty as planners and life guards. At a Mother and Daughter Tea on April 27 awards of letters were given to those who had the required number of points. The committee for the tea was made up of old members Alice Haag, Audrey House, Evelyn Jensen, Eleanor Bock, Dorothy Matosec, and Barbara Hill.

A Play Day on May 25 proved to be the big event of the year and all clubs were invited to send representatives. Instead of the usual single committee, there were eight different groups of hard working girls. The Executive Committee, whose duty it was to keep things running smoothly, was made up of Audrey House, Evelyn Jensen, Alice Haag, Dorothy Matosec, and Eleanor Bock. House and Jensen were also on the Reception Committee and gave out the insignia for the different teams. The posters and announcements of the festivities were taken care of by the Publicity Department, Barbara Hill, Christina Leonard, and Dolores Kurmis; and lunch was provided for by Lulu Heath, Mary Korchidas, Peaches Rickman, and Bernadine Storm. The recreation was planned by Mary Jane Sargent, Mary Stepancevic, Betty Woods, and Lillian Massack. The Floor Committee, Dorothy Nelson, Audrey House, and Norma Wright, kept track of the games and saw that the equipment was properly taken care of. The Checking Committee was made up of Juanita Barker and Virginia Smith and a Safety Committee made the frolic accident-free without impeding the fun.

Audrey House presided over all regular meetings; Bernadine Storm was secretary; Norma Wright was vice-president; Shirley Berger, treasurer; Juanita Barker, head of sports, and Barbara Hill was club editor.

German Club Promoted Interest In Customs

The purpose of the German club is to promote interest in the German people, to extend the knowledge of their customs and ways of living, and to effect universal tolerance and culture.

At club meetings, German games were played and German songs were sung. This same idea was carried out at the Christmas party, where members exchanged gifts and enjoyed the German style of food.

Last year was the first time that pins were designed and ordered for the organization. Again this year the members ordered pins which carried the purpose of the club.

For the first semester, the members of the club elected Carl Carpenter, president; Jim Flutka, vice-president; Elona Haase, secretary; Ila Jean McLeod, treasurer; and Bob Farkus, sargeant-at-arms.

Officers for the second semester were Elona Haase, president; Ben Christoper, vice-president; Shirley Main, secretary; Bernadine Storm, treasurer; and Bob Farkus, sargeant-at-arms.

HI-Y Active In State Conference

"To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

Officers for the 1944-1945 Hammond High Hi-Y, sponsored by Mr. L. E. Overman, were Mel Emde, president; Loren Norden, vice-president; Larry George, secretary; and Lee Mick, treasurer. Appointed officers were Bob Moore, program chairman, and Jim Skufakiss, publicity director.

Basing their activities on the oft-discussed theme of "juvenile delinquency, its causes, and how to stem its growth," Hi-Y's 115 members through the use of visual, printed, and oral means sought to learn and understand better the many aspects of this challenging present-day problem.

Talks by Sgt. John Einsele, juvenile officer of the Hammond Police department, and E. C. Wolcott, minister, businessman, and outstanding speaker from St. Louis, Missouri, further impressed upon Hi-Y members the four cardinal precepts of the organization—clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living.

Mr. Wolcott spoke before many schools and civic groups throughout the city and was sponsored in his appearance before the student body by the Hi-Y.

Club meetings proved worthwhile. Speakers, movies and round table discussions composed the activities during the meetings. Again this year the boys ordered pins which bear the traditional white cross (purity) on a red triangle (red blooded service and growth in body, mind and service).

The Hi-Y took active part in two state conferences. Mel Emde, Bob Moore, Lee Mick, Larry George, and Loren Norden attended the Hi-Y district conference at Valparaiso. Seventeen members of the Hi-Y attended the state Hi-Y Older Boys' Conference at Richmond. Bob Moore, president of the conference, presided.

At the Sixth Annual City Hi-Y Initiation held at the First Presbyterian Church, three hundred boys and many parents took part. Mr. E. C. Wolcott addressed the assemblage on the principles of Hi-Y and L. L. Caldwell, superintendent of schools, illustrated the significance and meaning of Hi-Y in our daily life.

The First District Hi-Y conference, outstanding Hi-Y event of the year, was planned by all the Hi-Y clubs in Hammond for approximately 250 boys from northwestern Indiana. The theme was "Hi-Y Looks Ahead".

The main address of the conference on the subject "Sound Foundations For My Home That Is To Be" will be given by Dr. Glenn Freye of Methodist Peace temple, Benton Harbor, Michigan.

Following dinner in the cafeteria, various entertainment was featured. Then the association formed discussion groups. The conference closed after election of officers for next year.

Spanish Club Sponsored Two Annual Fiestas

The Spanish Club this year started a newspaper, "Sabelo Todo," written entirely in Spanish by members of the club and Spanish classes and edited by Julie Kohut and Mildred Mannion.

During Pan-American week in April, the Spanish Club, in co-operation with the Pan-American League, stimulated interest in South America by displays, an advertising program, and an auditorium session.

All meetings were conducted entirely in Spanish. The club also sang Spanish songs.

Miss Kessing sponsored the club, which now is in its third year. The officers for the first semester were Betty Walker, president; Jean McKay, vice-president; Bill Tegman, secretary; and Dick Dye, treasurer. For the second semester officers were Betty Walker, president; John Trent, vice-president; Mary K. Clark, secretary, and Dick Dye, treasurer.

Pan Americans Corresponded With South American Neighbors

The purpose of the Pan American League is to study and become better acquainted with our South American neighbors. The Hammond League is a branch of the National Student Pan American League of Miami, Florida, to which reports are made regularly and from whom supplies and other aids are available.

Members of the League have been corresponding with pen pals in Mexico and South America, which they find very interesting, especially since part of the correspondence is carried on in Spanish.

At one meeting an interesting account of life in Mexico during the revolution was given by Mrs. Monfield, who spent several years in the near Quanjuate in Mexico.

Dolores Gould, president, was assisted by Russell Dryfus, vice-president; Wilma Efstathiou, secretary; Louise Lewis, corresponding secretary; and Dick Dyer, treasurer.

Girl Reserves Obtained Pins

The Girl Reserves is a force of the Y.W.C.A. The membership for the year was one hundred. The officers for the year were president, Naomi Cathcart; vice-president, Pauline Halleck; treasurer, Betty Woods; and secretary Pauline Yarovsky.

This year the girls made up their own programs. Their first meeting being the get together annual initiation. The meeting included a ceremonial and the presentation of a buttonaire to each new member, which she wore for the rest of the day. The other program, a playlet, a meeting for organization, and a community sing.

A group of the girls attended the Y.W.C.A. dinner, and they made their report to the other members in a panel discussion.

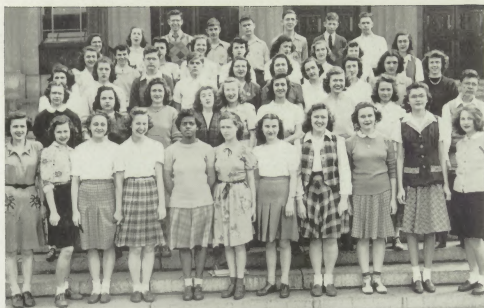

The girls planned their annual Easter party for the children at the Bethany home. Games, and an Easter egg hunt were held.

For the first time in all the years that the Girl Reserves has been a part of the Hammond High School, the girls obtained club pins. These pins were given to the members who had been in the club for two semesters or more. The pins have the emblem of the Girl Reserve on it's face.

In the summer of 1944, Naomi Cathcart, Betty Woods, and Pauline Halleck were sent to the Girl reserve summer camp.

Any girl who is classified 9A is eligible to join the club.

The faculty sponsor of the Girl Reserves is Miss Bollenbach.

Fifth row: Zweiban, Plevs, Bauer, Christianson, Bement, Baker, Wood, Unrath.

Junior Classical League Had Pot Luck

The chapter of the Junior Classical League is sponsored by the American Classical League. There are chapters throughout the United States and its territories, all of which have as their purpose, to hand the torch of classical knowledge to the modern world. A better understanding of our modern civilization is reached through acquaintance with the cultures of Greece and Rome since they are the sources of many of our laws, our language, the Romance languages, literature, and art.

There were several meetings this year, two of which were initiation and business meetings. The others were a supper meeting and a spring city-wide meeting. At each meeting part of the program was of a definitely classical nature, followed by a game, skit, or contest based on Latin. The club was successfully led by the officers for the year:

Consul Primus	Howard Black
Consul Secundus	Richard Peterson
Quaestor	Betsy Walker
Faculty Sponsor	Miss Buck

The members must be at least 9A's, have been in a Latin class at some time, and have kept up their interest in that subject.

RED CROSS

First row: Affleck, Danchi, Bock, George, Miner, St. Germaine, Hess, Shlensky.
Second row: Livingston, Lafferty, Seyda, Benne, Stepanceovich, Kuss, Kuhlman, Ganz.

Fourth row: Scott, Rippe, Diercks, Winburn, Kuss, Kahl, Porter.
Fifth row: Friedrichs, Greenley, Clancy, Keerbs, Maylor, Jarvis, James.

Junior Red Cross Aided In War Effort

The Junior Red Cross again made a wonderful record of service under the leadership of their sponsor, Miss K. Williams, and their officers, Eleanor Bock, president; Jeanne Clancy, vice-president; Verdonne Peterson, secretary; Ann Danchi, treasurer; Lorna Chizmar, chairman of publicity; and Lois Livingston, production chairman. The council is composed of one representative of each advisory since every student of Hammond High is automatically a member of the J. R. C.

Among their varied services were collecting magazines and cartoons, making games and equipment for hospitals, making of covers for Braille books, collecting contributions to the National Children's Fund, which aids orphans and children of all races; and aiding in collecting money for the American Senior Red Cross Drive. The Junior Red Cross, which is entirely independent of the Senior Red Cross, had its drive beginning on November 1. Contributions were in the form of materials and money.

Among the interesting reports at regular meetings were letters from a local girl who has been in Red Cross work in Africa and Europe, articles of interest from the Red Cross magazine, activities and customs of the Red Cross, foreign countries, and the city-wide Junior Red Cross meeting.

Visual Aids Department Showed 210 Reels This Year

The Hammond High School visual aids department under the direction of J. H. Wood, has charge of the visual aids which are used in the school.

The following pieces of apparatus have been used to carry on this work:

- 1 sound projector
- 1 silent projector
- 1 lantern slide machine
- 2 delineascopes
- 1 public address system

The following boys have been trained as operators and have given up a study hall to make the showing of films possible in our school. They are Donald Auld, Nathan Carras, Paul Cruse, Russell Dryfus, John Erickson, Robert Farkas, Paul Georgas, Albert Halls, Walter Langloh, Ray Leiback, Dale Liebengood, Fred Lennertz, Joe Matkovitch, Alfred Morningstar, Robert Parker, Bill Pepperdine, George Ramsey, Frank Richwalski, Harold Rigg, Jack Rowe, Ancil Shilling, Frank Sobek, and Louis Takacs.

Harold Rigg, who has been acting as assistant and maintenance boy, has had charge of the training of the operators. His assistant has been Jack Rowe.

During the past year, films and slides have been shown a hundred and twenty-three days. The films, which consisted of two hundred and ten reels and six sets of slides, were shown for all departments in school.

The public address system has been used fifteen times during the year. Harold Rigg and Jack Rowe have been responsible for its operation.

Third row: Hutton, Gescheider, Herbst, Beiriger, Piatt, Johnson, Krawczyk, and Benne.

Students Assisted In The Library

The library staff consisted of eighteen girls and seventeen boys. Those who were desk helpers, usually upper classmen charged out books, checked attendance slips, checked in books and magazines, and arranged cards. The room workers' duties include helping students find material, assisting at the card catalogue and Readers' Guide, marking, mending, and shelving books. Their requirements are courtesy, willingness to work, and dependability. For their efforts they receive five-tenths credit a period.

There were two study hall librarians, a regular and an alternate in each study hall. They came to the library, to get reference material for requests handed them by students of their study hall. This relieved the overcrowded conditions in the library. Material was made available for library lessons which were given through the English classes.

Nancy Shane and Mary Ann Flynn were in charge of the bulletin board display.

Money gifts were received from approximately twenty-five clubs, including the Herald and Dunes.

The library subscribed to fifty magazines and eight newspapers, including two Spanish papers, the New York Times (Sunday Edition), and Christian Science Monitor.

Donations of about fifty magazines came from various sources such as the Chamber of Commerce, science department, commercial department, and various individuals.

This year a new system has been established between the Hammond High School library and the Hammond Public Library. This system is called the "Interteacher's Loan System." The Hammond Public Library also loaned six hundred books for the students' use. Miss Hawver is the librarian, assisted by Miss Allman, Miss Exley, and Henrietta Bernhardt, typist.

Speech Arts Won At Indiana State

Throughout the school year the Speech Arts Club fostered speech activity among the students of Hammond High School through intra-mural and inter-school competition. The club is open to any student who earns ten NFL points by attending speech tournaments, and by making community service speeches. Therefore, students who are actually interested and active in forensics comprise the club.

Early in the year Hammond sponsored a tournament and later attended meetings at the Indiana State Teachers' College at Terre Haute, LaPorte, Thornton Fractional and George Rogers Clark.

Officers for 1944-45 were Jim Schroeter and Norman Anderson, presidents; Norman Anderson and Paul Huebner, vice-presidents; Ronnie Krieger and Phyllis Wilson, secretaries; Ruth Norris and Phyllis Wilson, treasurers.

The Hammond High debate team won the Calumet Debate League, newly organized this year. Two rounds of debate were held on Wednesdays throughout 22 weeks and the Hammond team finished with the best record. Competing in the Metropolitan Debate League at DePaul University in Chicago, Hammond placed high among the other schools.

The District debate championship of the Open

State Elimination competition also went to the Hammond team by downing Clark, Whiting, Roosevelt and East Chicago Washington.

Another honor piled up by the debate team was the victory at the Indiana State Teachers' College, Terre Haute, by way of a clean 6 out of 6 sweep of the debates. Varsity speakers were Irving Fasan and Paul Huebner, affirmative; Norman Anderson and Don Peckenpaugh, negative.

The Hammond High chapter of the National Forensic League maintained its all-time state record, having won eleven individual championships at NFL state tournaments, and the debate teams, having won state three times and runner-up twice.

The State NFL meet was held in Columbia City for two days, April 20 and 21. T. D. Reed, who has coached Hammond High teams since 1934, is the leading coach on the basis of the point system of the National Speech League.

The all-time high of 691 NFL points is held by Len Schroeter. James Jones holds 527 points; Julius Pewowar, 411; Betty Foss, 356; and Dick Reed, 322.

Irving Fasan won the city-wide Rotary Discussion contest and placed second in the district.

Bookroom Served as Central School Treasury

"Get your orders in early for tourney basketball tickets," was the plea of the bookstore staff under the supervision of Mr. Fruehling.

The Hammond High School bookroom staff aided the student body greatly this year acting as a central school treasury which served as a custodian of the funds for all school organizations.

Paper, pencils, rulers, and bus tickets were the main items sold in the bookstore. Enough paper was sold in the bookstore to paper the whole high school.

The staff with duties are as follows:

Alfred Silverman—member for the last two years.
Manager, auditor of the books.

Bertha Throop—member for the last two years. Balance the cash register daily.

Bessie Yescitz—balanced the cash box and took care of printing bills for the printing department.

Eleanor Grabski—bookkeeper of the school accounts.
Kathleen McBurney—reconciled treasurers' accounts with bookstore accounts.

Melvin Johnson—reconciled bank statement and stockman.

Nurses Staff Conducted Physical Examinations

The student nurses played an important part in keeping up the school's health standards. These students administered simple first aid under the direction of Mrs. Clark, the school nurse. They assisted in the physical check-ups which are given to seniors each semester. Several of them take care of the records. Those who worked in the health department last year were Betty Edwards, Betty Scott, Margaret Vellner, Faye Rector, Eleanor Kovach, Sophie Victor, Joyce Rusk, Jayne Sennett, Elizabeth Adams, Gladys Kniaz, Roberta Reeves, LaVerne Bonneau, Marcella Hamm, Isabel Chartos, Don Roberts, and Bill Lengyel.

Lora Jean Junkin—bookkeeper of individual accounts.
Euarda Huber—special jobs, recorded tardiness, cross files.

Pat Diblee—general filing.

Vera Smallman—checkwriter and invoice handler.

Mr. Fruehling—general faculty supervisor of the entire staff.

Pop-A-Dops Honor Servicemen

Pop-a-Dop, a newly organized club this year, is under the sponsorship of Mr. Louis Witham. It is now a regular school club, that was formed from one of Mr. Witham's modern problems classes. The name was coined by the members of the class; its meaning is "push our pens and do our part."

Its main purpose in organizing was to make possible the erecting of a bulletin board in the main hall, that would display and give access to the student, of all of the addresses of service men and women, who previously attended Hammond High School.

The first semester its organization consisted of members of the first hour modern problems class with La Verne Hildebrandt, acting as chairman, and Donna Chase, as co-chairman working for the forwarding of its purpose. Membership in Pop-a-Dop was made open to all students the second semester. The response for membership was very good, membership had to be limited because of the great number of applicants who responded.

Pop-a-Dop now has a full membership, meets regularly, and already has a system of collecting and getting all of the addresses of service men and women.

The next job of the club will be the raising of funds for the bulletin board and the erecting of it. With every member doing his part and with the student body's help and co-operation, Pop-a-Dop shall be a success.

Pop-a-Dop committees are as follows: organization; La Verne Hildebrandt, Donna Chase, Beverly Allan, Joanne Rhind, Elaine Rea, Martha Mahlie, and Miriam Williams. Publicity; Jackie Keith, Betty Lou George, Jacqueline Smith, Dorothy Herak, Gail Beckman, Joan Salyer, Jeannine Lute, Marcia Walker, Joan Kavanaugh, and Jo Anne Lightle. Bulletin board; Jerry Crary, Jim Scott, Bob Duckett, Mickey Sanders, Glen Nichols, Jack Dubs, and John Weber.

The alphabetizing committee is up to the remaining members of the club.

The members of the club published a special edition of the Calumet Herald each two weeks for the service men from Hammond High. Co-editors were Betty Lou Haberman and Angeline Evanoff. Sports were written by James Skuffakiss. The whole club was responsible for contributions, and Mary Kay Desmond, Alice Haag, Betty Burnett, Jo Anne Lightle, and Elizabeth Raimery were reporters. Mr. Bolt was the faculty advisor for the paper.

POP-A-DOP SPONSORS INITIAL SERVICE CALUMET HERALD

Pop-a-Dop, a newly organized club of Hammond High, was organized by the Modern Problems class of the first semester. It started with a suggestion by one of the students who believed our service men and women should be kept in mind with the latest news. The club now has a membership of approximately fifty members. It is under the sponsorship of Lewis Witham.

The members were given printed cards to acquire the names, addresses, and other interesting information of all service men who attended Hammond High. The club needs additional names and information.

Pop-a-Dop means "Push-our-pens-and-do-our-part." One of the aims of the club is to put out a semi-weekly paper for those in service. This paper is under the advice of A. T. Bolt and the Herald. It is under the editorship of Len Haberman and Angeline Evanoff, members of the Pop-a-Dop.

Social Representatives Bolster School Spirit

At the beginning of the first semester, the social representatives were chosen by advisories from a list of volunteers. Their first job was to select a social program for the year. This they planned in such a manner as to satisfy the wishes of the greatest number of students, and to give a well-rounded program of parties.

The opening event of the year was an after-game dance on September 22 to which Hammond Tech students were invited. A group of Hammond High representatives visited Tech to invite them to the dance. The lower halls were filled to capacity and an evening of good feeling between Hammond High and Tech was fostered.

On October 25, the Association sponsored a Halloween party with games, dancing, and refreshments in the lower halls and cafeteria. Fortune telling by Mildred Fannin, Lee Mick, and George Hall was a popular attraction.

At the close of the football season the social representatives planned a leap year celebration in the form of "Heroes Holiday," a dance at which the tables were turned on the girls and the "Heroes" took a holiday. Music was furnished by Wally Humphrey's orchestra.

Before Christmas vacation the boys' gym was transformed into an outdoor winter scene, the setting for "Mistletoe Magic". The floor was surrounded by painted scenery made by the social representatives.

A record crowd attended an all-school party after exams on January 24 entitled "Fun Incorporated". An amateur show in the auditorium provided fun and laughs for everyone. For the first time an orchestra composed of Hammond High students furnished the dance music in the cafeteria.

The first event of the second semester was a sport dance on March 9, featuring the Saint Patrick's Day theme, which paid special tribute to the basketball team. Reynold Young's orchestra furnished the music.

To complete the activities of the social committee, they presented a spring dance on May 11.

The objective throughout the year was to bolster school spirit and interest every student in the social activities. Under the direction of Miss Leodicia Strange, faculty sponsor of social activities, and Ray Stephens, secretary of student activities, the social representatives strove to extend to the student body a program of social activities to satisfy their varied desires.

The Dunes' Theme Was "The Time Is Now"

During the past year the Dunes staff sponsored an inspiring and patriotic auditorium session, "This Is My Country." It presented to the student body the stages in the development of America.

The theme this year was influenced by various slogans: "Now Is The Time," "Patriotism Gets Priority," "Education Isn't Rationed," "Health Is Rated Essential," and "No Ceiling On Morale."

The staff headed by editor-in-chief, Evelyn Jensen, and Miss Ellen McGranahan, editorial advisor, included Carol Carver, Marilyn McLean, Betty Lou Haberman, Eleanor Bock, Alice Haag, Bonnie Clark, Paul Shlensky, Dor Marosec, Shirley Sykes, Pat Schauwecker, and Betty Lou George.

Faye Rector was the business manager. Her staff consisted of Vera Smallman, Marge Robinson, Joyce Rusk, and Betty Lou Haberman. Mr. Dunham was the business advisor.

The Dunes staff acknowledges Miss McGranahan, editorial advisor of the yearbook; Mr. Dunham, financial advisor of the yearbook; Mr. O. W. Bodie, Mr. Charles Smith of the Gary Post-Tribune, and Mr. C. W. O'Betts of Grand Rapids, Michigan, photographers; Miss Kennedy, Miss Waterbury, Miss Davis, Miss Schubkegel, and Miss McGranahan for their work on "This Is My Country;" Mr. Charles DeLaney of the DeLaney Printing Company; Mr. Joe Todd of the Service Engraving Company of Detroit, Michigan, where the engravings for the Dunes were produced, and Mr. Harold Beckett of Kingsport Press of Chicago, where the covers were produced.

Calumet Herald Edited Under Wartime Restrictions

The Calumet Herald is the official publication of Hammond High School, edited by and for the student body, and despite conditions and restrictions brought on by a fourth war-time year, the Herald published editions regularly during 1944-45 under the editorship of Irving Fasan. His staff for the year consisted of Larry Weiss and Jim Skufakiss, managing editors; Alice Black and Yvonne Petrie, feature editors; Jim Skufakiss, sports editor; Carol Firchau, news editor; Ted Steffen, Pat Gavit, Barbara Zurn, Betty Medvid, Angeline Evanoff, Peggy Lyon, Dot Verboom, Jim Stoddard, Arlene Kaminsky, Bob Goodman, Marianne Hicks, Mary Kay Clark, Charlotte Bayton, Marilyn LaForce and the journalistic class, contributors. Mr. Bolt was the faculty supervisor for all editions.

Heading the business department of the Herald, Warren Yalowitz served as business and advertising manager for the year. He was assisted by advertising solicitors Donald Peckenpugh, Jim Ecklund, Dot McCullough, Clarence Wagonblast, Phyllis Tucker, Eleanor Moskoff, Norma Cox, Fred Whitton and Dolores Darling. Larry George served as staff photographer; Harvey Retzloff and Vera Smallman, cartoonists. Circulation was in charge of Marilyn Bolt, Fred Whitton, Angeline Evanoff, and Betty Medvid. Amanda Alexander, Edna Yeager and Mary Korehidas handling mailing.

As an organ of student news, the Calumet Herald strived to inform the student body and faculty of all school activities and to support school projects through special editions. Because the Herald carries on all the functions of a regular newspaper, both editorial and financial, the paper also provides an excellent opportunity for future journalists to gain valuable experience.

The entire student body was greeted, on the first day of school in September, with a sample copy of the Calumet Herald to introduce the paper to new members of the student body and faculty and as a gesture of friendship and school spirit to all returning teachers and students.

A goal of one thousand subscriptions was set and more than met during a two-week drive. Gay posters throughout the building urged the students to buy the school paper at a special rate and about a dozen advisories turned in 100 per cent co-operation. The members of these advisories were rewarded with candy bars.

To help put Hammond High School over the top on the third anniversary of Pearl Harbor Day, a special two-page edition of the Calumet Herald was distributed to each student and teacher telling of Hammond's previous achievements and the goals for the day. Hammond High did it again!

Throughout the year, students and faculty were continually urged, through the Herald, to purchase bonds and stamps in increasing proportions. The Sixth War Loan was wholeheartedly supported by the school publication with cartoons, photographs, editorials, features and mats supplied by the United States Treasury Department.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit, a gala twelve-page copy was distributed to the student body and faculty on the day before Yuletide vacation began. Many colorful features, advertising displays and a photogravure section, the Scholastic Roto, gave the Christmas Calumet Herald special appeal.

To give full support to the Hammond High team, the entire front page of the Herald, normally reserved for school news, was devoted to sports when Hammond won the sectional and regional basketball tournaments. The unorthodox make-up was used to spur the team in these tournaments. Valuable tournament statistics plus interesting features gave the front page a unique appearance. Tournament play was covered completely to give the student body the timely news most in demand.

This year the cub edition was edited by Carol Firchau. Her staff included Clarice Finkel, managing editor; Yvonne Petrie, feature editor; Richard Keeler, sports editor; Beverly Ewing, news editor; Arlene Kaminsky, copy editor. Charlotte Bayton and Shirley Sykes were in charge of news releases. Reporters were Dawson Graham, Clarence Wagonblast, Mary Kay Clark, Jeanne Sandstrom, Shirley Winner, Nadra Mickey, Madge Hedgedus, Doris Ford, Isabelle Chartes.

Marianne Hicks, Mildred Bundy, Yolanda Keane and Juanita Foster.

Vera Smallman was the cub cartoonist; Warren Yalowitz and Larry George, members of the regular staff, helped the cubs as business manager and photographer respectively. Mr. Bolt supervised the cub staff.

Several members of the Herald won membership in the Quill and Scroll, a national honorary society for high school journalists to which the Calumet Herald belongs. Those members are Irving Fasan, Warren Yalo-witz and Jim Skufakiss.

The last edition of the year, the graduation issue, was published solely by the graduating seniors on the staff as a tribute to all of the seniors of Hammond High. The Herald was devoted entirely to senior activities and interests. The class history and prophecy was published, together with other special features. While the seniors were editing the graduation issue, the tentative members of next year's staff took over duties during May.

Ace of Clubs Had High Scholastic Average

The Ace of Clubs, the scholastic honorary club for those freshmen who have a "B" average in all classroom work, has been organized to acquaint these new students and to teach them to conduct a business meeting.

A program committee, supervised by the vice-president arranges various programs in which each member can take part. These include the telling of numerous stories, quizzes, hobbies, resolutions, historic and current discussions. Each meeting has achieved the purpose of acquainting the members.

The officers for the first semester of this year were Rosemary Arens, president; Alice Barney, secretary; and Pat Rogers, treasurer. The sponsor is Miss Pritchard.

Arts and Crafts Club Had Tri-Fold Purpose

The Arts and Crafts Club, under the supervision of Miss Schubkegel, has three specific duties.

The first is to serve. The members have carried this out by helping the Red Cross in making menu covers for our boys in the armed forces, designing Christmas cards, in which a new record was set by selling 150 dozen cards at a dollar a dozen, and by being responsible for the decoration of the Christmas tree.

The second duty is social. Included in this are the regular meetings in which the members make animated cartoons, cut silhouettes on election day, and make Halloween masks. During the special meetings were a Christmas party, and a Thanksgiving party during which the members carved apples and potatoes to represent something pertaining to the holiday.

The last duty of this organization is appreciation. For this, the club members drew their representation of their responses to musical works. Slides have been shown from which the students studied techniques and various colors, and forms.

The club officers for the first semester were Frances Chizmar, president; Clyde Ball, vice-president; and Phyllis Wilson, secretary and treasurer.

A Cappella Choir Sang For Rotary Club

The A Cappella chair started its busy year by presenting a program of American Folk songs for the Rotary Club. After which they began preparation for a Winter Concert with the other choral groups. The concert was highlighted by a ballet by Marjorie Baker accompanied by all the choral groups singing the Skaters' Waltz, while snowflakes fluttered down from above.

The choir helped make the spirit of Christmas and Easter more vivid with musical programs for the entire student body. They also presented a patriotic program, "This Is My Country," in celebration of the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington as an advertisement for the '45 Dunes.

The Choral groups, combined with band and orchestra, took part in a radio program honoring the high schools of Hammond.

David Washburn was chosen president of the choir for 1944-45. Ruth Johnson held the office of secretary while Eileen Skonsky managed the money affairs of the club.

Advanced Girls' Glee Club Entertained Students

During the year 1944-45, the Girls' Glee Club sang at several auditorium sessions. A fitting program was given for the students and the P.T.A. for a Christmas during wartime. Outsiders and students enjoyed a fall and spring concert. The group also sang at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Several members including Connie Webster, Barbara Hill, and Pat Eaton took part in the Indiana State Solo Contest.

Besides getting pleasure from singing, the group received a musical education under the direction of Miss Esther Waterbury.

The officers elected by the group were Roberta Valiant and Eleanor Bock, presidents; Marjorie Gardner and Marcella Hamm, secretaries; Evelyn Hudson, treasurer; and Dorothy Startisack and Pat Eaton, librarians.

Girls' Chorus Had Large Membership

This year the Beginning Girls' Glee Club had the largest membership of its existence, numbering about 80 girls.

The first semester president was Doris Dodd; secretary, Jean Rudzik; treasurer, Gerry Walls; librarians, June Koon and Grace Bellamy. For the second semester, Rita Puryer was president; Rosemary Aherns and Irene Stevens, secretaries; Doris Dodd, treasurer; Joan Wolson and Joan Merritt, librarians.

The girls learned new ways to sing better by studying good tone quality, clearness of tone, proper breathing, and pitch.

During the year the girls participated in the "Winter Concert," "Christmas Program," "Spring Concert," and also the Commencement exercises.

The accompanists for the year were Sally Domke and Marie Christen.

Boys' Chorus Gained Recognition

The Boys' Chorus under the direction of Miss Waterbury has become one of the well-known organizations in Hammond High School. The success of the group has been through hard and cooperative work both during school hours and after school hours.

The officers elected for the year were Norman Zifoff, president; Charles Smith, secretary; Carter Iddings, treasurer; and Eugene Winebrenner, librarian. Shirley Stiller was accompanist.

During the year the club participated in many of the activity programs including Commencement, fall and spring concerts, Dunes patriotic auditorium session, and the Christmas entertainment. They were the guests of a Maywood P.T.A. meeting where they sang several selections. The group performed in a Washington junior high auditorium program.

The aims of the organization are to promote a better understanding of music and to encourage the good fellowship of singing.

Senior Band Added Pep To Football Games

The Senior Band, directed by Mr. Diercks, is remembered for its performance at the two concerts of the year. Of their many selections were the "Finale" by Dvorak and the "Overture of 1812." On March 15, they made a broadcast over WJOB in conjunction with the entire music department. Through their marching and playing at pep sessions and at all the football games of the season, they aroused added pep and interest. Added to these activities were marching for city parades and playing in auditorium sessions throughout the year. The divisions of the band are as follows:

Flute: LaForce, first chair, Lloyd, R., Massack, Hutchinson, Baldwin. Oboe: Hankins. Bassoon: Ritter, Main. Clarinets: Atkinson, first chair, Haase, Lind, Johnson, Sharkey, Fanning, Levin; Hudak, Brehmen, Miller, N., Rock, Shipley, Snyder, Barker. Saxophones: MacLeod, first chair, Reazor, Gerber, Forsythe, Luddy, MacCartney, Blade, Doehring. French Horn: Lyon, first chair, Holoway, Millard, Dreggers, Geisen, Sellaff.

Emphasis Was Placed On Ensembles

The most important recent development in school music is the emphasis being placed on ensembles or chamber music. In an ensemble, the talented music student may find great possibilities for development since by the slightest weakness on the part of one member, an artistic performance would not be maintained.

There are many opportunities for public appearances before church groups, P.T.A. meetings, and other civic organizations. Also the spring contest for ensembles and soloists gives an added incentive for the talented musician.

The following ensembles entered the spring contest:

String Quartet: Carolyn Niemann, Leslie Bombar, Martha Victor, Carol Hildebrandt.

String Quartet: Joyce Luellen, Helen Baldwin, Patsy Greenlee, Craig Affleck.

Saxophone Sextet: Loretta Mills, Arnold Brown, Warren Abraham, Rosella Beckley, Mike Petrick, Charles Oxman.

String Quintet: Ida Groglath, Eileen Kennedy, Ruth Lloyd, Lucette Maguire, Wilma, St. Clair.

Clarinet Trio: Helen Atkinson, Elona Haase, Arthur Johnson.

Violin Quartet: Helen Baldwin, Eunice Diecks, Jane Haney, Jewel Buse.

HEALTH IS

Clean body and clean mind are mutual companions.

Girls, as well as boys, partake in compulsory physical programs. "Commando" training for boys emphasizes physical coordination and stamina. Former students return with personalized stories of combat experiences — "How much my participation in sports has helped me." They stress teamwork—a by-product of athletic squads. Students with greater enthusiasm scramble for positions on football, basketball, track, swimming, golf, and tennis teams — intra-mural competition captures the backing of the student body . . . "Hammond's on the March Again" . . . and the laurels roll on.

A healthy nation is a prosperous nation.

Girls' Sports

The first tournament of the year was the speedball tournament. The freshmen and the juniors were eliminated first and the final game was played between the seniors and the sophomores. The only two points of the game were made in the second quarter when Evelyn Jensen kicked the ball between the goal-posts to put the seniors out ahead, two to nothing. The seniors were able to hold their lead during the second half despite a number of fast drives by the sophomores. The members of the winning senior team who were chosen for the girls' varsity speedball team were Eleanor Bock, Alice Haag, Audrey House, Evelyn Jensen, and Chris Leonard. Underclassmen who made varsity were Shirley Berger, Carolyn Kutak, Marie Mulholland, Elizabeth Raimey, Mary Kay Tudor, Betty Woods, and Norma Wright.

Volleyball was the next girls' sport. In a double elimination tournament the freshmen and the juniors were eliminated, both receiving two losses. The seniors had suffered one loss to the juniors, so they faced the sophomores with the danger of losing this game and losing the tournament. In a fighting game the seniors came out on top, breaking a tie in the beginning of the last quarter and holding their lead. They then faced the sophomores on even terms, each team having one loss. Early in the game the sophomores stepped ahead only to be tied later on. In the last quarter the sophomores found new life, however, and stepped ahead again, this time to win the championship with a score of twenty-nine to twenty. Volleyball varsity members of the winning sophomore team were Shirley Berger, Marie Mulholland, Lottie Myszak, Marie Nelson, Jane Pickett, and Norma Wright. Seniors on the varsity team were Lulu Heath, Evelyn Jensen, and Chris Leonard. The juniors were Mary Jane Sargent, Mary Stepanevich, and Lois Studer.

The highest total score for the season was made by Lottie Myszak who had forty points to her credit. Next came Lulu Heath and Eleanor Bock with eighteen points each and Charlotte Bayton with seventeen points.

The basketball tourney gave still another team a chance to win. It was a double elimination tournament and the freshmen and the sophomores were eliminated first. The seniors met the juniors with one loss already to the juniors. In a fast game the score progressed evenly on both sides. There were times when both teams were ahead by two or three points. The last minute found the score tied, but a junior forward dropped one in that won the game. Juniors who made the varsity team were Lorna Chizmar, Mary Jane Sargent, Elizabeth Smith, Phyllis Staniszewski, Mary Stepanevich, and Lois Studer. Seniors were Eleanor Bock, Alice Haag, Audrey House, Evelyn Jensen, and Chris Leonard. A freshman who made varsity was Chasteler who played an outstanding game before her team was eliminated by the seniors.

Hammond Gridders Won 2, Tied 1

The Wildcats were hindered by the pre-season injury of their stalwart fullback, Bill Smith, but nevertheless were able to win the season opener with Catholic Central of South Bend, 9 to 6 on our gridiron. The following weeks the gridders were not so fortunate. Roosevelt of East Chicago downed the Wildcats 16 to 6. Ronnie Hanock broke loose in the final minutes of the game to run 80 yards for the only score of the game.

Our cross-town rivals, Hammond Tech, won a 7 to 6 heart-breaker for their second win over Hammond High in 20 years.

The Wildcat "11" were successful in holding a powerful East Chicago Washington team to a 13 to 13 tie, but were held scoreless the following week while an Emerson powerhouse rolled up four touchdowns and three conversions for a total of 27 points.

Several injuries were sustained in the Harvey game in which the opponents were victors 12 to 0.

The pig skinner won the second game of the season by trouncing Whiting 26 to 7, and the following week journeyed to Clark, the runner-up for the state championship, where the Wildcats outplayed the Pioneers, leading most of the game. The Clark team, however, made their three conversions while Hammond didn't make any. The final score was 21 to 18 in favor of Clark.

The Hammond team was beaten by a driving Lew Wallace team in the last game of the season 52 to 7 and thus ended a season of 2 wins, 1 tie, and 6 losses.

The starting line-up consisted of Scott, Piatt, Eidam, Sternberg, Mead, Gollner, Gustafson, Weber, Sikora, and Jurczak.

Wildcats Reach Sweet Sixteen

One of the smoothest and spirited teams in the history of Hammond High battled their way to the semi-finals at Lafayette, where they were defeated in the first game by a powerful South Bend Riley team that was runner up for the state championship.

The Wildcat five was a well-balanced team with a great deal of shooting and passing ability. The team was sparked by captain Hugh Dawson and ignited by the uncanny accuracy of John Granack, 5' 11" center. They were made stronger by the one-handed push shots of Dillard Paris who added his share of points to the team's record. Hard driving Norm McCain maneuvered the ball into position for the team, and Nick Kucer will always be remembered as the boy who kept the team under control when the going was tough. He set the boys up and even though he did not score a great number of points, he was a valuable player.

Substitutes such as Geschiedler, Metikosh, Stepancevich, Blair, and Sobek did their part in keeping the team in the running.

Hammond High will never forget the great team of 1945 that carried them to the "Sweet Sixteen." Their smoothness and spirit in school and on the court made them unforgettable characters in the minds of fans wherever they went.

Much credit goes to Coach Bob King, whose good coaching and interest in the boys gave them courage and spirit. Next year with six boys returning and potentialities moving up from the "B" team, King's hopes are even higher for the possibility of a state championship.

GRANACK: Senior pivot man who out-jumped and out-played most centers. A consistent scorer averaging 12 points a game.

PARIS: Senior one-handed push shot artist who could be counted on to swish the net from any place on the court when the going was toughest.

DAWSON (Captain): Senior forward that out-faked every player on the floor and then let loose with a push shot that usually found the basket.

KUCER: Senior guard who was instrumental in setting up plays. He was an excellent ball handler and was full of the Wildcat scrap.

McCAIN: Sophomore guard with plenty of drive. He could be depended upon to work the ball out in midcourt.

STEPANCEVICH: Senior sparkplug who was an expert at making long shots and who specialized in classy ball handling. His drives through the center added many points to his record.

GESCHIEDLER: Junior center who did a fine job of replacing Granack, along with a good eye for the basket and super rebound ability. He will be an excellent pivot man next year.

METIKOSH: Sophomore forward who was always ready to do his share. His fight and ability pulled the game out of the fire more than once.

BLAIR: Sophomore forward who showed great skill as a rebound man. His spirit and basket making ability will make him a great asset to his team in the coming years.

SIKORA: Senior guard whose rugged style of playing made him a favorite. He was known as the avenger and his long shots usually stripped the nets.

SOBEK: Sophomore who could always be depended upon to carry on as substitute. He will be a great player in the future.

Cross Country

The cross country team, paced by captain Dick Sampson won only two of six dual meets, but the team showed the most improvement of all teams in the conference. All of the boys were inexperienced at the two mile run except Sampson who was the only senior on the team. Coach King is planning on having an experienced and winning team next year which will consist of the same boys as it does this year. There were such potentialities on the team as George Ramsey who was the only sophomore on the team and George Korellis, Bob Mitchell, Richard Wilson, Bob Jusik, and

Horace Cantrell.

The harriers nipped Whiting in the first meet 27 to 29 and Washington 19 to 29, but were defeated by Horace Mann, Clark, Roosevelt, and Fort Wayne the following weeks. The team won a seventh place in the Hobart Invitational meet and a sixth place in the NIHSC.

In the NIHSC Sampson was nosed out of first place by Whitacre of Fort Wayne, Ramsey was the second Hammond man and took 22nd. Korellis was 31st, Mitchell was 46th, and Wilson was 58th.

Wildcat Thinlies Were a Balanced Squad

Once again Hammond High School's track team loomed as a potential state championship team. Under Coach Huffine were eleven returning veterans: Hanock, Lindholm, Sampson, Scott, Dawson, Buck, Cantrell, Andres, Blair, Piatt, and Sikora.

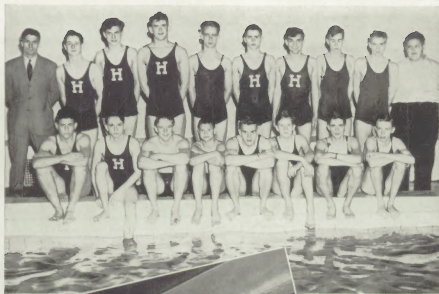

The Wildcat squad opened the season with a victory in the NIHSC invitational meet at the Purdue Field against thirteen other teams by amassing a total of fifty-one points. The nearest rival team, Ft. Wayne North Side, had forty-five points. This was the only indoor meet of the season.

The thinlies trounced Hobart 77 to 32 in the first outdoor meet and were victors over Washington of East Chicago by the same score in another meet.

The cindermen were victors over Froebel by a score of 63 to 46. At the East Chicago Relays, Hammond High was first with a score of 78.7 and East Chicago Roosevelt was second with 65.5.

SWIMMING TEAM

The Hammond High swimming team had to take matters into their own hands at the beginning of the swimming season because Coach Bob King had his hands full turning out a cross country team and a championship basketball team. Despite this handicap, the splashers took their daily workouts and under the supervision of co-captains Keith Gilchrist and Don Roberts, the team progressed steadily. When Julius Papais started as a coach he was assigned to take over the swimming team. Although the sport was new to him, he was of great assistance to the team and with the help of more experienced swimmers he was able to help the newcomers. The team ended a fairly successful season by winning 4 meets and losing 4.

The mermen took a second in both the conference and the state swimming meets losing both times by a small margin to Horace Mann.

TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE:

Your sons, husbands and brothers who are standing today upon the battlefronts are fighting for more than victory in war. They are fighting for a new world of freedom and peace.

We, upon whom has been placed the responsibility of leading the American forces, appeal to you with all possible earnestness to invest in War Bonds to the fullest extent of your capacity.

Give us not only the needed implements of war, but the assurance and backing of a united people so necessary to hasten the victory and speed the return of your fighting men.
